Advancing Women's Right of Access to Information in Bangladesh Project
Terms of Reference – Local Civil Society Partner Organizations

(Dinajpur and Netrokona Districts)

local CSOs in Dinajpur and Netrokona districts, with a preference for those already supporting Dalit and other marginalized women, and support them in expanding AWRTI programming to those districts. Together, the AWRTI programming aims to achiev

Year 2 (October 1, 2025

-
  - A program design overview and details of proposed activities, including identified beneficiary groups, an implementation timeline, and named lead project personnel;
  - Identified working areas for the programming;
  - A risk analysis, including mitigation strategies;
  - A Monitoring and Evaluation Plan, including specific targets reached through each proposed activity; and,
  - Organizational qualifications to lead this work, including dates and budget amount of three most recently implemented, donor-supported programs.
- A budget, detailing line item and activity costs, including staff allocation, for the suggested time period;
- A budget narrative, explaining proposed costs;
- An organizational UEI number (if available);
- Proof of SAM registration (if available);
- TIN Certificate and Proof of NGO Registration; and
- Evidence of bank statement/certificate.

For any questions, direct emails to